JOHN HUNT

SUPPLY CHAIN AND OPERATIONS SPECIALIST

John is an accomplished supply chain and operations executive who turns operational complexity into commercial performance. With more than 20 years' experience across health, beauty, retail, manufacturing, mining, and government, he has delivered measurable transformation—lifting service levels above 98%, reducing global inventory by $150 million, and improving operating expenses by 25%.

His expertise spans S&OP design, planning system implementation, 3PL transitions, network optimisation and performance diagnostics. John builds disciplined operating rhythms that embed accountability, data integrity and cost-to-serve efficiency.

Applying his leadership model of dynamic subordination, he empowers teams closest to the problem to make informed decisions within clear strategic boundaries—building capability, foresight and trust.
